

Life Imprisonment vs. Hanging.

The Louisville Courier-Journal is of the opinion that "Cox's punishment is sufficient. If the sentence is carried out, 'Lifetime Imprisonment' is really worse than hanging." Life imprisonment may be worse than hanging, but it provokes a smile to see life imprisonment spoken of in this connection. Does not the Courier-Journal know that there is no such thing as life imprisonment except to the poor and humble and those who have no "friend at court?" If the sentence shall be carried out! Aye, there's the rub. Georgia elects a new governor every two years; and maudlin public sentiment will soon come to look upon Cox through his prison bars as a martyr, and ere Alston's widow lays aside her weeds her husband's murderer will step the earth with a pardon in his pocket and a pistol in his hand.

John Sherman.

John Sherman has gone to Ohio to canvass for the gubernatorial nomination. If he can get elected on the financial issue he thinks his chances for the Presidential nomination over Grant will be very good. Hayes and his administration are in favor of Sherman. In case Sherman resigns his position as Secretary of the Treasury, Stanley Matthews, it is thought, will be his successor. The New York Sun says: "We do not recollect any instance in the history of American politics where a candidate has advanced more rapidly towards a nomination for President, than John Sherman has in the past week. It shows how ready the masses of the Republican party are to seize upon anything that holds out a probable show of ridding the party of Grant's candidacy and the incubus of a third term."

To Remove Dandruff.

This is a natural secretion, but becomes a cutaneous complaint by neglect. Take an ounce of powdered borax, a piece of unsalted lime the size of a chestnut, and a table-spoonful of spirits of ammonia; put them in a quart bottle, and fill it up with boiled or pump water. After twelve hours, apply this wash to the scalp. Ladies can apply it best with a fine sponge. Rinse with tepid water. After a few applications the scales will disappear, the hair becomes soft and brilliant, and the young hair will begin to start out. Dandruff should be cured gradually, so as not to produce sick headache or dizziness by its sudden suppression.

Just About This Time.

A flame is in her glassy eye, a broom is in her eager hand, aloft she lifts a sudden cry, that echoes like a new brass band; her dress is reefed about her knees, as through the house she cuts a path, and in her eye the stranger sees a being of majestic wrath. Step ladders scale the papered height, and tubs of water flood the floor; her voice is heard from morn to night, rising above the awful roar. Fly from her presence dog and cat, fly from her presence man and mouse; it is the vernal frenzy that possesses her—she's cleaning house.

A man who shot a New York lawyer began to prosper right away. Landis, who shot a New Jersey editor, lost his property, his wife got a divorce, and he is fast becoming a lunatic. You may shoot as many lawyers as you please and still prosper, but if you wish to enjoy the pleasures of this world and escape the torments of hereafter, never plug an editor.

The Philadelphia Times gravely advises the people of North Adams, Mass., to tar and feather or hang a man who had deserted his family and eloped with a married woman. If a Southern paper should give such advice, it would be lectured by every journal published north of Mason and Dixon's line.

Any person who will get us up a Club of Ten Cash Subscribers at 1.50 per annum will receive THE DEMOCRAT one year free. Go to work at once, and secure your Club. We know you can do it if you but half try. Send to this office for specimen copies, which will be furnished on application.

The Norristown Herald has a timely receipt to prevent a shad bone from lodging in the throat, and those who try it can never feel sufficiently grateful for knowing how to avert this great peril to human life. The recipe is to eat fried liver.

The young man without his moustache stands a poor chance to get a kiss from some of the young girls, as one has already told him "she had just as soon bite a hard boiled egg without salt, as to kiss a young man without a moustache."
